HOLY COW IS RIGHT!!!!
Just like that, we are only a couple weeks away from the start of a new school year. Although we did not host a Summer Social this year, it was still a very eventful summer.

SUMMER DAY CARE was an all around success. The kids had a great time and the staff did an amazing job starting the new summer sessions. Every week included trips to the Public Library, Curious Minds, and Dollar Shows at the Movie Theatre.

VBRD Summer Institute, six of us attended the week long training in Wichita. It was such great week to learn from Lynne Lang and her staff, and to collaborate with other schools from across the country. Of the 38 schools in our diocese, 28 were in attendance, as well as Catholic Schools from Nebraska, Colorado, and Louisiana. We are very excited to continue our work in Restorative Discipline and Catholic Formation.

LOTS OF MAINTENANCE PROJECTS were completed this summer as well. The school building looks all around shiny and fantastic thanks to the great job Mrs. Hazel has done. Other highlights include refinishing the gym floor, new tint on the gym windows, new boilers, and a new secure intercom for the daycare entrance (West hallway doors).

BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT Tuesday August 15

There is evening Mass for THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY at 5:30pm. Immediately following Mass we will gather briefly in the Parish Hall. Then everyone will have a chance to bring their supplies to the classrooms and say hello to the teachers. It is always an exciting night and, although summer is great, we really look forward to seeing all the kids again.

They will switch rooms for different subjects, so Grades 3, 4, and 5 will see both of them each day. But the students will always be in the same classroom. The Middle School, grades 6, 7, and 8 will still switch classes like normal. Mrs. Thompson is returning as the Resource Teacher as part of the Holy Family Foundation grant. We are also very fortunate to welcome Mrs. Killingsworth to St. Pat's. Clara recently retired from the Parsons School District, is a life long parishioner, and will be serving as our Title I teacher.
