ADVENT BEGINS SUNDAY

In the secular sense, the "Holiday Season" is already under way.

But the Church officially begins celebrating the great mysteries of God becoming man in the Child Jesus this Sunday. ADVENT literally means "to come". There are 3 comings we prepare for: 1- Christ being born man, 2- our Lord coming into hearts each time we pray and most profoundly in the Eucharist, then 3- His coming at the end of time. This preparation culminates with the celebration of Jesus' birthday on Christmas. The actual "Christmas Season" then continues until at least the EPIPHANY (a.k.a. 3 Kings Day, 1-6-19) and the BAPTISM OF JESUS (1-13-19). So, in all our cooking, cleaning, shopping, decorating, etc. etc. be sure to invite the Lord into that, find joy in the anticipation before Christmas, and continue the celebration to its fulfillment.

With the upcoming holidays, and even looking ahead to next semester, this may be a good time to remind everyone about the SCRIP Program. As a school we only do 2 fundraisers, Auction and Chili Feed. However, you may also purchase SCRIP Gift Cards in the office. Almost every store, gas station, etc. has these gift cards, you still get the full value of the money, but a percentage is donated back to the school. It is the easiest and most efficient way to raise money for the school, IT DOESN'T COST YOU ANYTHING!!! Anyone can buy them anytime, just contact the school office.
